

CENTRAL FLORIDA
MEDIEVAL-RENAISSANCE STUDIES CONFERENCE

April 7-8, 1978
Sarasota, Florida

PROPOSED SCHEDULE:

Friday:

Paper Session I	3:00 - 4:30
Reception	5:00 - 6:00
Banquet	6:30 - 7:30
Lecture	7:30 - 8:15
Concert	8:30 - 10:00
(Open to public - Early Music Soc.)

Saturday:

Paper Session II	9:00 - 10:30
Coffee Break	10:30 - 11:00
Conference Lecture (no lunch)	11:00 - 12:00
Fair, starting	1:30 or 2:00

CONFERENCE EXPENSES:

Reception	? (George)
Banquet	Paid by participants
Concert	Early Music Society $300
	Islamic Musician $100 plus transportation
Two lecturers	Travel expenses, $200
Coffee Break	?
Programs	?
Mailings	?
Bus to banquet and back	?
Student prizes	$100

DEADLINES FOR CONFERENCE:

Paper proposals or abstracts due	January 15, 1978
Notification of acceptance	February 15, 1978
Program mailed out	March 15, 1978
Conference	April 7-8, 1978

Student Paper Contest:

Submission of completed papers
Notification of winners

February 15, 1978
March 15, 1978

Student Paper Contest:

Announce contest for best undergraduate student paper on some aspect of Medieval-Renaissance Period. (Separate flier.)

1st prize $50, 2 or 3 prizes $25
Best 3 papers to be read at Conference
Judges?

Call for Papers:

On all aspects of society and culture of Europe and the Mediterranean World between 1000-1600 A.D.

- including Art History, literature, music, philosophy, religion, economics, politics, Islamic, Byzantine and Jewish studies.

Especially interested in papers on:

1. Mediterranean World
2. Medieval-Renaissance pagentry and ceremonial
3. Historical simulations as an educational strategy
4. Popular culture, especially those aspects related to the origins of the circus tradition (mime, jogleurs, acrobats, animals)
5. Papers commemorating the Ciompi Revolt of 1378 and the Pazzi Conspiracy of 1478, or related Florentine topics

Special Exhibit in Music Room

Continuous through Fair
Mss facsimiles?